Where an extraordinary general meeting is called for by a written requisition, the Secretary of the Company shall be under a duty to convene the meeting in accordance with Article 14.3 and without prejudice to said duty shall in consultation with the Board (or the Chairperson if practicable but if such consultation is not practicable at his/her own discretion) decide the time, date and place for the meeting.
- 14.3. Such meeting shall be held within twenty eight days after receipt of such order or requisition. Proof that the envelope was properly addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that notice was given. A delivery receipt or read receipt shall be conclusive evidence that notice was given by email.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 16.
- 16.1. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting of the Company unless a quorum of members is present in person at the time the meeting proceeds to business. Seven members shall form a quorum.
- 16.2. If no quorum is present within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting the members present shall be deemed to have formed a quorum.
- 17.
- 17.1. The Chairperson of the meeting may with the consent of a majority of the members present adjourn any meeting but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business not reached or left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- 17.2. Every adjourned meeting shall be deemed a continuation of the original meeting and any resolution passed at an adjourned meeting shall for all purposes be treated as having been passed on the date on which it was in fact passed and shall not be deemed to have been passed on any earlier date. It shall not be necessary to give notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
- 18.
- 18.1. At all general meetings of the Company the Chairperson shall preside as Chairperson of the meeting, or if there be no such Chairperson, or if he/she be not present, or is unwilling to act, the members present shall elect a member of the Board present to be the Chairperson of the meeting. In the absence of any members of the Board, the members present shall elect from their number a Chairperson of the meeting.

- 18.2. Should the Chairperson appear at a later time during the meeting, the acting Chairperson of the meeting at his/her discretion may continue in that position but only until the current or particular item on the agenda is disposed of before vacating the chair for the Chairperson.
19. Except in the case of a special resolution (or any other resolution which in the terms of the Act requires a majority equivalent to that required to pass a special resolution), which shall be decided by not less than a three-fourths majority of those voting, either upon a show of hands, or where a poll is agreed or directed, a resolution put to the vote of a general meeting shall be decided by a simple majority of those voting, either upon a show of hands, or where a poll is agreed or directed. In the case of a poll votes may be given personally or by a proxy who need not be a member of the Company.
20. At all general meetings of the Company every member present in person shall have one vote upon a show of hands. Where however an appointed proxy is present and so declares, the Chairperson of the meeting shall direct a poll. On a poll every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote. In the case of an equality of votes the Chairperson of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
21. Unless a poll be demanded, a declaration by the Chairperson of the meeting that a resolution on a show of hands has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry made to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, such resolution.
 - 22.1. A poll may be demanded either before or immediately after a vote by a show of hands, by not less than one-tenth of the members present at the meeting (in person or by proxy), or may be directed by the Chairperson of the meeting whether pursuant to Article 20 or otherwise. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
 - 22.2. If a poll is to take place, it shall be conducted forthwith at the meeting in such manner as the Chairperson of the meeting shall direct. The result of such a poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Company in general meeting.
 - 23.1. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the form set out in the Appendix attached to these Articles given under the hand of the appointer or of his/her attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointer is a body corporate, under its official document execution procedures, and shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company not less than two clear days before the date fixed for holding the meeting at which the person named in such instrument is authorised to vote on behalf of the member so appointing. Any question as to the validity of a proxy shall be determined by the Chairperson of the meeting.
 - 23.2. The member who has appointed a proxy may revoke such proxy in the form set out in the Appendix attached to these Articles given under the hand of the appointer or of his/her attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointer is a body corporate, under its official document execution procedures, and shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company not less than one clear day before the date fixed for holding the meeting at which the person named in the instrument appointing the proxy was authorised to vote on behalf of the member so appointing.

- 23.3. Only those instruments in the form set out in the Appendix appointing a proxy, which are properly completed as aforesaid, shall be treated as valid. The Chairperson of the meeting shall report to the meeting the details of those instruments of proxy which are void.
- 23.4. The maximum number of proxy votes that may be cast by any one person is 10.

CONDUCT OF GENERAL MEETINGS

24. All speakers shall address the Chairperson of the meeting and all members shall observe order in such instance. No member shall be allowed to speak more than once on any motion, unless on a point of clarification, until every other member has had the opportunity to speak on the same issue. He/she shall then have only the opportunity to speak a second time by permission of the Chairperson of the meeting unless he/she was the person who raised the point initially and wishes to have a final reply as regards his/her original position.
25. No amendments shall be made to any motion of business involving the passing of a special resolution (or any other resolution which in terms of the Act requires a majority equivalent to that required to pass a special resolution). Amendments to any original motion of business involving an ordinary resolution (that is, a resolution requiring a simple majority) may be made by a member verbally by addressing the Chairperson of the meeting. Amendments shall be taken in order of intimation; one amendment shall be disposed of before another is moved.
26. The time limit for speakers shall be at the discretion of the Chairperson of the meeting.
27. If any point arises which is not provided for in these Articles, the Chairperson of the meeting shall give an opinion on the point. Should his/her opinion not be accepted by a challenge which has a seconder, the Chairperson of the meeting shall then vacate the Chairperson and a vote shall be taken and the matter determined by a simple majority.
28. No meeting shall continue for more than four hours beyond the time for which the meeting is called, unless with approval of at least two-thirds of the members present, after the expiry of that time.

NUMBER OF BOARD MEMBERS

- 30.3. Co-opted persons may take part in the deliberations of the Board and vote at any meetings thereof, on all matters excepting those directly affecting membership of the Company or the election of its officers.
- 30.4. For the purposes of these Articles, co-opted persons shall be included in the expressions "Board Member" or "member of the Board".
- 30.5. Each of the Board Members shall, in exercising his/her role as a Board Member, act in the best interests of the Company, its tenants and service users and will not place any personal or other interests ahead of his/her primary duty to the Company; and, in particular, must:-
- 30.5.1. seek, in good faith, to ensure that the Company acts in a manner which is in accordance with its objects.
- 30.5.2. act with the care and diligence which it is reasonable to expect of a person who is managing the affairs of another person.
