GENERAL MEETINGS

Annual General Meeting

20. The Association will hold a general meeting known as the annual general meeting within six months of the end of each financial year of the Association. The functions of the annual general meeting are to:
- 20.1 present the Chairperson's report on the Association's activities for the previous year;
 - 20.2 present the accounts, balance sheet and auditor's report;
 - 20.3 elect Management Board Members.
 - 20.4 appoint the auditor for the following year; and
 - 20.5 consider any other general business included in the notice calling the meeting.

Special General Meeting

- 21.1 All general meetings other than annual general meetings are known as special general meetings. The Secretary will call a special general meeting if:
- 21.1.1 the Management Board requests one; or
 - 21.1.2 At least four Members request one in writing. If there are more than 40 Members, at least one tenth of all the Members must ask for the meeting.

- 21.2 Whoever asks for the meeting must give the Secretary details of the business to be discussed at the meeting.
- 21.3 If a special general meeting is requested, the Secretary must within 10 days of having received the request give all Members notice calling the meeting. The meeting must take place within 28 days of the Secretary receiving the Members' request. The Secretary should decide on a time, date and place for the meeting in consultation with the Management Board or the Chairperson, but if such consultation is not practicable the Secretary can on his/her own decide the time, date and place for the meeting.
- 21.4 If the Secretary fails to call the meeting within ten days, the Management Board or the Members who requested the meeting can arrange the meeting themselves.
- 21.5 A special general meeting must not discuss any business other than the business mentioned in the notice calling the meeting.

Notice for Meetings

- 22.1 The Secretary will call all general meetings by written notice posted or sent by fax or email to every Member at the address, fax number or email address given in the Register of Members at least 14 days before the date of the meeting. This notice will give details of:
- 22.1.1 the time, date and place of the meeting;
 - 22.1.2 whether the meeting is an annual or special general meeting;
 - 22.1.3 the business for which the meeting is being called.
- 22.2 The Management Board may ask the Secretary to include with the letter or send separately to Members any relevant papers or accounts. If a Member does not receive notice of a meeting or papers relating to the meeting, this will not stop the meeting going ahead as planned. Each communication sent to a Member by post, addressed to his or her registered address, shall be deemed to have arrived forty eight hours after being posted. Each communication sent to a Member by fax or email shall be deemed to have arrived on the day it is sent.
- 23 The proceedings of a meeting shall not be invalidated by the inadvertent failure of the Association to send a notice calling the meeting to any Member.

PROCEDURE AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 24.1 For a meeting to take place there must be at least seven Members either present at the venue or represented at the venue by a representative approved in terms of Rule 27.1. If there are more than 70 Members, at least one-tenth must either be present or represented at the venue by a representative in terms of Rule 27.1.
- 24.2 If not enough Members are present in person or by representative within half an hour of the time the meeting was scheduled to start, the meeting shall be rescheduled to the same day the following week at the same time and at such place as may be fixed by the Chairperson of the meeting and announced at the meeting. There is no need to give notice to Members of the rescheduled meeting. If at that meeting there are not enough Members present in person or by representative at the scheduled starting time the meeting can still go ahead.

- 25 If a majority of Members present agree, the Chairperson of a meeting can adjourn the meeting. No business can be discussed at the adjourned meeting other than the business not reached or left unfinished at the original meeting. There is no need to give notice to Members of the adjourned meeting.
- 26.1 The Chairperson of the Management Board will be Chairperson at all meetings of the Association. If there is no Chairperson or he/she is not present or willing to act, the Members present must elect a Member of the Management Board to be Chairperson of the meeting. If no Management Board Members are present, the Members present must elect a Member to be Chairperson of the meeting.
- 26.2 If the Chairperson arrives later, after the meeting has commenced, s/he will take over as Chairperson of the meeting as soon as the current agenda item is concluded.

Proxies/Representatives/Postal Votes

- 27.1 To appoint a representative to vote on your behalf by proxy, you must let the Association have a properly completed document in the form shown in Appendix 1. Your representative does not need to be a Member. The document must reach the Association at least five days before the meeting at which you want to be represented.
- 27.2 If there is any doubt about whether your representative has authority to vote, the Chairperson will decide and his/her decision will be final.
- 27.3 The maximum number of proxy votes that may be cast by any one person is 10.
- 27.4 To reverse your appointment of a representative, you must let the Association have a properly completed document in the form shown in Appendix 2. The document must be presented to the Association before the meeting at which you no longer want to be represented convenes. Alternatively, if you declare yourself present before the meeting convenes, the appointment of a representative to vote on your behalf will automatically fall.
- 27.5 The Chairperson will report to the meeting the details of any documents seeking to appoint a representative received but which are not valid. If you represent an organisation, your authorisation or appointment as a representative requires to be in accordance with the terms of Rule 12.2.
- 27.6 If there is to be an election of Management Board Members at an Annual General Meeting, you can vote by post. Not less than 14 days before a meeting is held at which one or more Management Board Members will be elected, you will receive a ballot paper for the election. You can vote in the election by returning the ballot paper to the Secretary at least 5 days before the day of the meeting, or by bringing your ballot paper along to the meeting.

Voting

- 28 If a decision of a meeting is put to the vote, the outcome will be determined by the majority of those Members voting. Voting will be by a show of hands except where a poll is requested or required. Votes cannot be taken on resolutions which conflict with any provisions of these Rules or the law.
- 29.1 Where a vote is by a show of hands every Member present in person has one vote. Where a vote is by a poll every Member present in person or who has appointed a representative has one vote. Where an appointed proxy is present, and he/she advises the Chairperson, the Chairperson shall direct that the vote is by a poll.
- 29.2 In relation to the election of Management Board Members, the vote is by a poll using the ballot paper issued to the Members prior to the meeting; votes received by post in advance of the meeting will be counted in the total number of votes at the meeting.
- 30 If there is an equal number of votes for and against a resolution, or in relation to the election of Management Board Members, the Chairperson will have a second and deciding vote. The Chairperson's announcement of the decision of a vote will be final and conclusive. The decision is then recorded in the minutes of the meeting. There is no need to record the number of votes for or against the decision.
- 31.1 A poll can be required before or immediately after a vote by a show of hands, if at least one-tenth of the Members present at the meeting (in person or by proxy through a representative appointed in accordance with Rule 27.1) request this.
- 31.2 A poll must take place as soon as the Chairperson has agreed to it, in line with the Chairperson's instructions. The result of the poll will stand as the decision of the meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 32 All speakers must direct their words to the Chairperson. All Members must remain quiet and orderly while this is happening.
- 33 You will not be allowed to speak more than once on any individual matter unless it is to explain something or ask for an explanation until every other Member has had the chance to speak. You will then have the opportunity to speak a second time on a matter but only if the Chairperson agrees. Where the Chairperson raised the matter for discussion initially, she/he shall be permitted to make a final reply on the matter.
- 34 The Chairperson will decide how long each speaker is allowed to speak, allowing equal time to each speaker.
- 35 If any point arises which is not covered in these Rules, the Chairperson will give his/her ruling. If the Chairperson's ruling is challenged by more than one person, the Chairperson will step down and those present will decide the point raised on a majority vote. If the vote is tied, the Chairperson's original ruling is carried.
- 36 Meetings must not last longer than two hours unless at least two-thirds of the Members present agree after the end of that time to continue the meeting.

THE MANAGEMENT BOARD

Composition of the Management Board

- 37.1 The Association shall have a Management Board which shall have a minimum of 7 and a maximum (including co-optees) of 12 persons. - 37.3 A person must be aged 18 or over and a Member to become a Management Board Member (including any person appointed to fill a casual vacancy) other than a person appointed as a co-optee or appointed by The Scottish Housing Regulator who must be aged 18 or over but need not be a Member.
- 37.4 An employee of the Association, or a Close Relative of an employee, may not be a Management Board Member.

- 37.6 The Management Board shall assess annually the skills, knowledge, diversity and objectivity that it needs for its decision making and what is contributed by the Management Board Members by way of annual performance reviews. The Management Board must be assured that any Management Board Member who has continuous service on the Management Board of nine years or more and who is seeking re-election is able to demonstrate his/her continued effectiveness as a Management Board Member before he/she may stand for re-election.
- 37.7 Each of the Management Board Members shall, in exercising his/her role as a Management Board Member, act in the best interests of the Association, its tenants and service users and will not place any personal or other interests ahead of his/her primary duty to the Association; and, in particular, must:-
- 37.7.1 seek, in good faith, to ensure that the Association acts in a manner which is in accordance with its objects.
 - 37.7.2 act with the care and diligence which it is reasonable to expect of a person who is managing the affairs of another person.
 - 37.7.3 in circumstances giving rise to the possibility of a conflict of interest between the Association and any other party:-
 - 37.7.3.1 put the interests of the Association before that of the other party, in taking decisions as a Management Board Member;

- 37.7.4 ensure that the Association complies with any direction, requirement, notice or duty imposed on it by the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.

Interests

- 38.1 The Management Board shall set and periodically review its policy on payments and benefits. If a person is a Member, employee of the Association or serves on the Management Board or any sub-committee he/she must not receive any payment or benefit unless it is permitted by the policy. In making any payment or conferring any benefit the Association shall act at all times with transparency, honesty and propriety.
- 38.2 If a person serves on the Management Board or any sub-committee he/she must declare any personal or other external interests on an annual basis in accordance with the Association's Code of Conduct for Management Board Members. If while serving on the Management Board that person has any conflict of interest in any contract or other matter about to be discussed at a meeting, he/she must tell the Management Board. He/she will be required to leave the meeting while the matter is discussed and will not be allowed to vote on the matter or to stay in the meeting while any vote on the matter is being held. If that person is inadvertently allowed to stay in the meeting and vote on the matter, his/her vote will not be counted.
- 38.3 If a person serves on the Management Board or any sub-committee he/she must not receive any payment or benefit unless it is permitted by the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and as set out in the Association's policy referred to in Rule 38.1. He/she shall also comply with the requirements of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 in respect of any conflict of interest that might arise.

ELECTING MANAGEMENT BOARD MEMBERS

- 39.1 At the end of the first annual general meeting after the total membership of the Association has risen to seven or more, all Management Board Members must retire. From then on at the end of every annual general meeting, at least one-third of the Management Board Members or the nearest whole number thereto, must retire. Anybody appointed as a co-optee under Rule 42.1 or to fill a casual vacancy under Rule 41 and who retires for that reason, shall not count towards the one third provision. The retiring Management Board Members should be selected in accordance with Rule 39.2.
- 39.2 The retiring Management Board Members should be those who have served the longest on the Management Board since the date of their last election. If two or more Management Board Members have served equally long and cannot agree who should retire, they must draw lots.
- 39.3 Management Board Members must also retire if they have been co-opted onto the Management Board under Rule 42.1 or have filled casual vacancies under Rule 41.
- 39.4 If a Management Board Member retires from the Management Board in terms of Rule 39 before or on the date of the next annual general meeting, that Management Board Member can stand for re-election without being nominated.

- 40.1 If, at the annual general meeting the number of Members standing for election is less than or equal to the number of vacant places, the Chairperson will declare them elected without a vote. If there are more Members standing for election than there are vacant places, those present at the general meeting or those exercising a postal vote in accordance with Rule 27.6 will elect Members onto the Management Board, in accordance with Rule 29.2. Each Member present or who has appointed a representative will have one vote for each place to be filled on the Management Board. A Member must not give more than one vote to any one candidate.
- 40.2 The Association will post or send by fax or email intimation of the intended date of the annual general meeting and information on the nomination procedure to each Member at the address, fax number or email address given in the Register of Members of the Association not less than 28 days before the date of the meeting. Nominations for election to the Management Board must be in writing and in the form specified by the Association and must give the full name, address and occupation of the Member being nominated. A Member cannot nominate himself/herself for election to the Management Board. Nominations must be signed by and include a signed statement from the Member being nominated to show that they are eligible to join the Management Board in accordance with Rules 37.4 and 43, and that they are willing to be elected. Nomination forms can be obtained from the Association and must be completed fully and returned by hand or by post to the Association's registered office at least 21 days before the general meeting.
- 41 If an elected Management Board Member leaves the Management Board between the annual general meetings, this creates a casual vacancy and the Management Board can appoint a Member to take their place on the Management Board until the next annual general meeting.

Co-optees

- 42.1 The Management Board can co-opt to the Management Board or to a sub-committee anyone it considers is suitable to become a Management Board Member or member of a sub-committee. Co-optees do not need to be Members, but they can only serve as co-optees on the Management Board or sub-committee until the next annual general meeting or until removed by the Management Board. A person co-opted to the Management Board can also serve on any sub-committees.
- 42.2 A person appointed as a co-optee shall undertake the role of Management Board Member or member of a sub-committee and accordingly will be subject to the duties and responsibilities of a Management Board Member. Co-optees can take part in discussions at the Management Board or any sub-committees and vote at Management Board and sub-committee meetings on all matters except those which directly affect the Rules, the membership of the Association or the election of the Association's Office Bearers. Co-optees may not stand for election, nor be elected as one of the Office Bearers of the Management Board.
- 42.3 Management Board Members co-opted in this way must not make up more than one-third of the total number of the Management Board or sub-committee members at any one time. The presence of co-optees at Management Board Meetings will not be counted when establishing whether the minimum number of Management Board Members are present to allow the meeting to take place as required by Rule 48 and the presence of co-optees will not count towards the quorum for sub-committee meetings.

Eligibility for the Management Board

- 43.1 A person will not be eligible to be a Management Board Member and cannot be appointed or elected as such if:-

POWERS OF THE MANAGEMENT BOARD

- 45 The Management Board is responsible for directing the affairs of the Association and its business and may do anything lawful which is necessary or expedient to achieve the objects of the Association. The Management Board is not permitted to exercise any powers which are reserved to the Association in general meetings either by these Rules or by statute. The Management Board is responsible for the leadership, strategic direction and control of the Association with the aim of achieving good outcomes for its tenants and other service users in accordance with Regulatory Standards and Guidance issued by The Scottish Housing Regulator from time to time.
- 46 The Management Board acts in the name of the Association in everything it does. A third party acting in good faith and without prior notice does not need to check if the powers of the Management Board have been restricted, unless they are already aware that such a restriction may exist.
- 47 Amongst its most important powers, the Management Board can:-
 - 47.1 buy, sell, build upon, lease or exchange any land and accept responsibility for any related contracts and expenses.
 - 47.2 agree the terms of engagement and remuneration of anyone employed in connection with the business of the Association and act as employer for anyone employed by the Association.
 - 47.3 grant heritable securities over land owned by the Association and floating charges over all or any part of property and assets both present and in future owned by the Association. This includes accepting responsibility for any related expenses.
 - 47.4 decide, monitor and vary the terms and conditions under which property owned by the Association is to be let, managed, used or disposed of.

- 47.5 appoint and remove solicitors, surveyors, consultants, managing agents and employees, as required by the Association's business.
- 47.6 refund any necessary expenses as are wholly necessary incurred by Management Board Members and sub-committee members in connection with their duties.
- 47.7 compromise, settle, conduct, enforce or resist either in a Court of Law or by arbitration any suit, debt, liability or claim by or against the Association.
- 47.8 accept donations in support of the activities of the Association.

MANAGEMENT BOARD PROCEDURE

- 48 It is up to the Management Board to decide when and where to hold its ordinary meetings, but it must meet at least six times a year. There must be at least four Management Board Members present for the meeting to take place.
- 49 The Management Board will continue to act while it has vacancies for Members. However, if at any time the number of Management Board Members falls below seven, the Management Board can continue to act only for another two months. If at the end of that period the Management Board has not found new Members to bring the number of Management Board Members up to seven, the only power it will have is to act to bring the number of Management Board Members up to seven.
- 50 Management Board Members must be sent written notice of Management Board meetings posted, or delivered, by hand or sent by fax or email to the last such address for such communications given to the Secretary at least seven days before the date of the meeting. The accidental failure to give notice to a Management Board Member or the failure of the Management Board Member to receive such notice shall not invalidate the proceeding of the relevant meeting.
- 51. Meetings of the Management Board can take place in any manner which permits those attending to hear and comment on the proceedings.
- 52 All speakers must direct their words to the Chairperson. All Management Board Members must remain quiet and maintain order while this is happening. The Chairperson will decide who can speak and for how long.
- 53 If any point arises which is not covered in these Rules, the Chairperson will give his/her ruling which will be final.
- 54 All acts done in good faith as a result of a Management Board Meeting or sub-committee meeting will be valid even if it is discovered afterwards that a Management Board Member was not entitled to be on the Management Board.
- 55 A written resolution signed by not fewer than three quarters of the Management Board Members or three quarters of the members of a sub-committee will be as valid as if it had been passed at a Management Board Meeting or sub-committee meeting duly called and constituted.

Special Management Board Meetings

- 56.1 The Chairperson or two Management Board Members can request a special meeting of the Management Board by writing to the Secretary with details of the business to be discussed. The Secretary will send a copy of the request to all Management Board Members within three working days of receiving it. The meeting will take place at a place mutually convenient for the majority of Management Board Members, normally the usual place where Management Board Meetings are held, between 10 and 14 days after the Secretary receives the request.
- 56.2 No other business may be discussed at the meeting other than the business for which the meeting has been called.
- 56.3 If the Secretary does not call the special meeting as set out above, the Chairperson or the Management Board Members who request the meeting can call the meeting. In this case, they must write to all Management Board Members at least seven days before the date of the meeting.
- 57 If a Management Board Member does not receive notice of the meeting, this will not prevent the meeting going ahead.

Sub-committees

- 58.1 The Management Board can delegate its powers to sub-committees or to staff or to Office Bearers. The Management Board will establish the terms of reference for such delegation, which will be set down in writing and communicated to the recipient of the delegated powers. Such delegation will be set out down in writing in standing orders, schemes of delegated authority or other appropriate documentation. In the case of a sub-committee such delegation shall include the purposes of the sub-committee, its composition and quorum for meetings. A minimum number of members for a sub-committee shall be three. There must be at least three of the members of a sub-committee present for the meeting to take place. The Management Board shall be responsible for the on-going monitoring and evaluation of the use of delegated powers.
- 58.2 The meetings and procedures of sub-committees or otherwise must comply with the relevant terms of reference.
- 58.3 Any decision made by sub-committee must be reported to the next Management Board Meeting.
- 58.4 The Management Board can establish and delegate powers to sub committees, designated as Area Committees, to take decisions relating to the management and maintenance of properties within a particular geographical area. The Management Board will determine the membership and delegated responsibility of an Area Committee in its terms of reference. An Area Committee shall exercise such delegated powers notwithstanding the provisions of Rules 42.1 and 42.3 which provisions shall not apply to Area Committees.

THE SECRETARY AND OFFICE BEARERS

- 59.1 The Association must have a Secretary, a Chairperson and any other Office Bearers the Management Board considers necessary. The Office Bearers, except for the Secretary, must be elected Management Board Members and cannot be co-optees. An employee may hold the office of Secretary although not be a Management Board Member. The Management Board will appoint these Office Bearers. If the Secretary cannot carry out his/her duties, the Management Board, or in an emergency the Chairperson, can ask another Office Bearer or employee to carry out the Secretary's duties until the Secretary returns.
- 59.2 The Secretary and the other Office Bearers will be controlled, supervised and instructed by the Management Board.
- 59.3 The Secretary's duties include the following (these duties can be delegated to an appropriate employee with the Secretary assuming responsibility for ensuring that they are carried out in an effective manner):

- 59.5 At its first meeting after registration of the Association, the Management Board will elect the Chairperson of the Association. Thereafter a Chairperson will be appointed on an annual basis at the next scheduled Management Board Meeting held after each annual general meeting.

Role of the Chair

The Chairperson is responsible for the leadership of the Management Board and ensuring its effectiveness in all aspects of the Management Board's role and to ensure that the Management Board properly discharges its responsibilities as required by law, the Rules and the standing orders of the Association. The Chairperson will be delegated such powers as is required to allow the Chairperson to properly discharge the responsibilities of the office. Among the responsibilities of the Chairperson are that:-

The Chairperson can only be required to resign if a majority of the remaining Management Board Members present at a special meeting agree to this.
- 59.7 If the Chairperson is not present at a Management Board meeting or is not willing to act, the Management Board Members present will elect another Management Board Member to be Chairperson for the Management Board Meeting. If the Chairperson arrives at the meeting late, s/he will take over as Chairperson of the Management Board meeting as soon as the current agenda item is concluded.
- 59.8 If the votes of the Management Board Members are divided equally for and against an issue, the Chairperson will have a second and deciding vote.
- 59.9 The Chairperson can resign his/her office in writing to the Secretary and must resign if s/he leaves the Management Board or is prevented from standing for, or being elected to the Management Board under Rule 43. The Management Board will then elect another Management Board Member as Chairperson.

- 61 Office Bearers and employees will not be responsible for the Association's loss while they are carrying out their duties unless there has been gross negligence or dishonesty.
