You are only eligible to apply for membership of the Co-operative if you are a tenant occupying housing or accommodation provided by the Co-operative under the terms of a Tenancy Agreement granted by the Co-operative, or, where the Co-operative admits prospective tenants into membership, if you are a prospective tenant. If the Co-operative determines to admit prospective tenants into membership prospective tenants will be those persons fulfilling the relevant criteria determined by the Co-operative and whose names are entered in the register of prospective tenants. You can apply to the Co-operative to dispose of, transfer or assign your Tenancy Agreement but this will be possible only if the Co-operative consents in writing.

Applying for Membership

- 7.1 The Committee shall set, review and publish its membership policy for admitting new Members. Subject to the provisions of Rule 7.2 the following shall be eligible to become Members:-
- 7.1.1 Tenants of the Co-operative; and
- 7.1.2 Prospective tenants of the Co-operative.
- 7.2 If you are applying for membership you must be a tenant of the Co-operative or a prospective tenant and you must send a completed and signed application form and the sum of one pound (which will be returned to you if the application is not approved) to the Co-operative's registered office. Whilst it is the Co-operative's intention to encourage membership, the Committee has absolute discretion in deciding on applications for membership and the following shall constitute grounds for refusal of an application for membership:-
- 7.2.1 Where membership would be contrary to the Co-operative's Rules or policies; or
- 7.2.2 Where a conflict of interest may exist which, even allowing for the disclosure of such an interest, may adversely affect the work of the Co-operative; or
- 7.2.3 Where the Committee considers that accepting the application would not be in the best interests of the Co-operative.
- 7.3 Your application shall be considered by the Committee as soon as reasonably practicable after its receipt by the Co-operative. The Committee has the power in its absolute discretion to accept or reject the application.
- 7.4 If the Committee approve your application, you will immediately become a Member and your name and other necessary particulars will be included in the Register of Members within seven working days. You will then be issued one share in the Co-operative.
- 7.5 You may at any time, with the approval of the Committee, become a joint Member together with another person admitted by the Committee to joint membership and the share issued to you as a Member shall be converted to a joint share in both your names. The Register of Members shall be amended accordingly and your name shall stand first in the Register of Members as between you and the other person. The joint Member whose name appears first in the Register of Members is solely entitled to exercise the rights of membership granted by these Rules. Joint Members must become joint tenants under the Tenancy Agreement. If you are a joint tenant of the Co-operative you may become an individual Member of the Co-operative if you wish, with the approval of the Committee.

- 7.6 Two or more persons may apply for joint membership. You must send an application form and One Pound (which will be returned to you if the application is not approved) to the Secretary at the registered office. The Committee will consider your application as soon as reasonably practicable after its receipt by the Co-operative.

If your application is approved, each of your names shall be entered into the Register of Members as joint Members and one share of the Co-operative shall be issued to you. Your names shall be entered in the Register of Members and shall appear on the Share Certificate in the order that they appeared on your application form. As joint Members, you must sign a Tenancy Agreement for a house provided by the Co-operative. You must each sign the Tenancy Agreement and occupy the house within one month of being requested to do so by the Co-operative. The joint Member whose name appears first in the Register of Members is solely entitled to exercise the rights of membership granted by these Rules. Joint Members must become joint tenants under the Tenancy Agreement. If you are a joint tenant of the Co-operative you may become an individual Member of the Co-operative if you wish, with the approval of the Committee.

- 8 You can apply for membership of the Co-operative from the age of 16.

- 9 No Member can hold more than one share in the Co-operative.

ENDING YOUR MEMBERSHIP

- 10.1 Your membership of the Co-operative will end and the Committee will cancel your share and record the ending of your membership in the Register of Members if:-
- 10.1.1 You resign your membership by giving the Secretary one month's notice in writing at the registered office provided that you give up your Tenancy Agreement at the same time.
 - 10.1.2 You have ceased to occupy the house provided by the Co-operative under the Tenancy Agreement; or
 - 10.1.3 Your Tenancy Agreement ends or is ended; or
 - 10.1.4 You are a prospective tenant and you have notified the Co-operative in writing that you no longer require accommodation to be provided by the Co-operative or you have refused to enter into a Tenancy Agreement which the Co-operative has offered to you; or
 - 10.1.5 You have died; or
 - 10.1.6 You fail to sign a Tenancy Agreement as required by Rule 6; or
 - 10.1.7 The Co-operative receives a complaint about your behaviour and two-thirds of the Members voting at a special general meeting agree to end your membership. The following conditions apply to this procedure:
 - 10.1.7.1 the complaint must be in writing and must relate to behaviour which could harm the interests of the Co-operative.
 - 10.1.7.2 the Secretary must notify the Member of the complaint in writing not less than one calendar month before the meeting takes place;
 - 10.1.7.3 the notice for the special general meeting will give details of the business for which the meeting is being called;
 - 10.1.7.4 you will be called to answer the complaint at the meeting. The Members present will consider the evidence supporting the complaint and any evidence you decide to introduce;
 - 10.1.7.5 the Members can vote in person or through a representative by proxy;

- 10.1.7.6 if you receive proper notice but do not go to the meeting without providing a good reason, the meeting will go ahead without you and the Members will be entitled to vote to end your membership.
- 10.2 If your membership is ended in accordance with Rule 10.1.7, you will immediately cease to be a Member from the date that the resolution to end your membership was passed and any further application for membership by you will need to be approved by two-thirds of the Members voting at a general meeting.
- 10.3 Your joint membership shall end and the Co-operative will cancel your share, the value of which will then belong to the Co-operative with effect from the date of a Committee resolution to that effect, and the Register of Members will be amended accordingly if:-
- 10.3.1 you fail to sign a Tenancy Agreement as required by Rules 7.5 and 7.6; or
- 10.3.2 your Tenancy Agreement ends or is ended; or
- 10.3.3 you cease to occupy the house provided by the Co-operative under the Tenancy Agreement.
- 10.4 If one of you ceases to occupy the house provided by the Co-operative under the Tenancy Agreement or dies your interest in the membership share and the Tenancy Agreement shall belong to the remaining joint Member who will then become an individual Member. The joint share shall be changed to a share in the sole name of the remaining Member and the Register of Members shall be amended accordingly.
- 10.5 If your Tenancy Agreement ends or is ended, you will cease to be a Member seven days after the Tenancy Agreement comes to an end unless within those seven days you enter into a new Tenancy Agreement with us.
- 10.6 If you notify the Co-operative in writing that you no longer need the house provided by the Co-operative, your name will be removed from the register of prospective tenants.

- 15.3 For the purposes of Rule 15.1 in respect of any proposed borrowing intended to be index-linked or on any deep discounted security the amount of borrowings shall be deemed to be the proceeds of such proposed borrowings that would be receivable by the Co-operative at the time of the proposed borrowing.

Where the Co-operative is using a loan facility to on lend it must comply with the Regulatory Framework and Regulatory Guidance issued by The Scottish Housing Regulator from time to time.
- 15.7 The Co-operative may borrow money from such lawful sources as is permitted by its Treasury Management Policy subject always to the requirement that the Co-operative will comply with the Regulatory Framework and Regulatory Guidance issued by The Scottish Housing Regulator from time to time.

16. The Co-operative shall not lend money to Members.

GENERAL MEETINGS

17. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Rules (which shall be subject to the terms of this Rule 17) a Member cannot insist on attending a general meeting of the Members, or voting at the meeting, by any particular means. Further, the following provisions shall apply to the conduct of general meetings when so determined by the Committee:-
 - 17.1 a general meeting need not be held in any particular place and the meeting may be held without any number of those participating in the meeting being together at the same place.

- 17.2 a general meeting may be held by any means which permits the Members attending to hear and comment on the proceedings during the meeting. Members attending the meeting by such means shall be present at the meeting for the purposes of Rule 21.1.
- 17.3 a Member is able to exercise the right to vote at a meeting (including if a poll is required) by such means as is determined by the Chairperson and which permits the Member's vote to be taken into account in determining whether or not a resolution is passed.

Annual General Meeting

- 18. The Co-operative will hold a general meeting known as the annual general meeting within six months of the end of each financial year of the Co-operative. The functions of the annual general meeting are to:
 - 18.1 present the Chairperson's report on the Co-operative's activities for the previous year;
 - 18.2 present the accounts, balance sheet and auditor's report;
 - 18.3 elect Committee Members.
 - 18.4 appoint the auditor for the following year; and
 - 18.5 consider any other general business included in the notice calling the meeting.

Special General Meeting

- 19.1 All general meetings other than annual general meetings are known as special general meetings. The Secretary will call a special general meeting if:
 - 19.1.1 the Committee requests one; or
 - 19.1.2 at least four Members request one in writing. If there are more than 40 Members, at least one tenth of all the Members must ask for the meeting.
- 19.2 Whoever asks for the meeting must give the Secretary details of the business to be discussed at the meeting.
- 19.3 If a special general meeting is requested, the Secretary must within 10 days of having received the request give all Members notice calling the meeting. The meeting must take place within 28 days of the Secretary receiving the Members' request. The Secretary should decide on a time, date and place for the meeting in consultation with the Committee or the Chairperson, but if such consultation is not practicable the Secretary can on his/her own decide the time, date and place for the meeting.
- 19.4 If the Secretary fails to call the meeting within 10 days, the Committee or the Members who requested the meeting can arrange the meeting themselves.
- 19.5 A special general meeting must not discuss any business other than the business mentioned in the notice calling the meeting.

Notice for Meetings

- 20.1 The Secretary will call all general meetings by written notice posted or sent by fax or email to every Member at the address, fax number or email address given in the Register of Members at least 14 days before the date of the meeting. This notice will give details of:

- 20.1.1 the time, date and place of the meeting;
 - 20.1.2 whether the meeting is an annual or special general meeting;
 - 20.1.3 the business for which the meeting is being called.
- 20.2 The Committee may ask the Secretary to include with the letter or send separately to Members any relevant papers or accounts. If a Member does not receive notice of a meeting or papers relating to the meeting, this will not stop the meeting going ahead as planned. Each communication sent to a Member by post, addressed to his or her registered address, shall be deemed to have arrived forty eight hours after being posted. Each communication sent to a Member by fax or email shall be deemed to have arrived on the day it is sent.
- 20.3 The proceedings of a meeting shall not be invalidated by the inadvertent failure of the Co-operative to send a notice calling the meeting to any Member.

Procedure at General Meetings

- 21.1 For a meeting to take place there must be at least seven Members either present at the meeting or represented by a representative approved in terms of Rule 24.1. If there are more than 70 Members, at least 7% must either be present or represented by a representative in terms of Rule 24.1.
- 21.2 If not enough Members are present in person or by representative within half an hour of the time the meeting was scheduled to start, the meeting shall be rescheduled to the same day the following week at the same time and at such place as may be fixed by the Chairperson of the meeting and announced at the meeting. There is no need to give notice to Members of the rescheduled meeting. If at that meeting there are not enough Members present in person or by representative at the scheduled starting time the meeting can still go ahead.
- 22 If a majority of Members present agree, the Chairperson of a meeting can adjourn the meeting. No business can be discussed at the adjourned meeting other than the business not reached or left unfinished at the original meeting. There is no need to give notice to Members of the adjourned meeting.
- 23.1 The Chairperson of the Committee will be Chairperson at all meetings of the Co-operative. If there is no Chairperson or he/she is not present or willing to act, the Members present must elect a Member of the Committee to be Chairperson of the meeting. If no Committee Members are present, the Members present must elect a Member to be Chairperson of the meeting.
- 23.2 If the Chairperson arrives later, after the meeting has commenced, s/he will take over as Chairperson of the meeting as soon as the current agenda item is concluded.

Proxies/Representatives/Postal Votes

- 24.1 To appoint a representative to vote on your behalf by proxy, you must let the Co-operative have a properly completed document in the form shown in Appendix 1. Your representative does not need to be a Member. The document must reach the Co-operative at least five days before the meeting at which you want to be represented. The Chairperson shall not be entitled to act as a representative for any other Member.

- 24.2 If there is any doubt about whether your representative has authority to vote, the Chairperson will decide and his/her decision will be final.
- 24.3 The maximum number of proxy votes that may be cast by any one person is 10.
- 24.4 To reverse your appointment of a representative, you must let the Co-operative have a properly completed document in the form shown in Appendix 2. The document must be presented to the Co-operative before the meeting at which you no longer want to be represented convenes. Alternatively, if you declare yourself present before the meeting convenes, the appointment of a representative to vote on your behalf will automatically fall.
- 24.5 The Chairperson will report to the meeting the details of any documents seeking to appoint a representative received but which are not valid.
- 24.6 If there is to be an election of Committee Members at an Annual General Meeting, you can vote by post. Not less than 14 days before a meeting is held at which one or more Committee Members will be elected, you will receive a ballot paper for the election. You can vote in the election by returning the ballot paper to the Secretary at least 5 days before the day of the meeting, or by bringing your ballot paper along to the meeting.

Voting

- 25 If a decision of a meeting is put to the vote, the outcome will be determined by the majority of those Members voting. Voting will be by a show of hands except where a poll is requested or required. Votes cannot be taken on resolutions which conflict with any provisions of these Rules or the law.
- 26.1 Where a vote is by a show of hands every Member present in person has one vote. Where a vote is by a poll every Member present in person or who has appointed a representative has one vote. Where an appointed proxy is present, and he/she advises the Chairperson, the Chairperson shall direct that the vote is by a poll.
- 26.2 In relation to the election of Committee Members, the vote is by a poll using the ballot paper issued to the Members prior to the meeting; votes received by post in advance of the meeting will be counted in the total number of votes at the meeting.
- 27 If there is an equal number of votes for and against a resolution, or in relation to the election of Committee Members, the Chairperson will have a second and deciding vote. The Chairperson's announcement of the decision of a vote will be final and conclusive. The decision is then recorded in the minutes of the meeting. There is no need to record the number of votes for or against the decision.
- 28.1 A poll can be required before or immediately after a vote by a show of hands, if at least one-tenth of the Members present at the meeting (in person or by proxy through a representative appointed in accordance with Rule 24.1) request this.
- 28.2 A poll must take place as soon as the Chairperson has agreed to it, in line with the Chairperson's instructions. The result of the poll will stand as the decision of the meeting.

Proceedings at General Meetings

- 29 All speakers must direct their words to the Chairperson. All Members must remain quiet and orderly while this is happening.
- 30 You will not be allowed to speak more than once on any individual matter unless it is to explain something or ask for an explanation until every other Member has had the chance to speak. You will then have the opportunity to speak a second time on a matter but only if the Chairperson agrees. Where the Chairperson raised the matter for discussion initially, she/he shall be permitted to make a final reply on the matter.
- 31 The Chairperson will decide how long each speaker is allowed to speak, allowing equal time to each speaker.
- 32 If any point arises which is not covered in these Rules, the Chairperson will give his/her ruling. If the Chairperson's ruling is challenged by more than one person, the Chairperson will step down and those present will decide the point raised on a majority vote. If the vote is tied, the Chairperson's original ruling is carried.
- 33 Meetings must not last longer than two hours unless at least two-thirds of the Members present agree after the end of that time to continue the meeting.

THE COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT

Composition of the Committee

- 34.1 The Co-operative shall have a Committee of Management which shall have a minimum of 7 and a maximum (including co-optees) of 15 persons. The Co-operative shall keep up to date a register of the names of the Committee Members which shall be made available to any person at no cost. The names of Committee Members will also be published by the Co-operative on its website, and in its annual reports and other similar documentation.
- 34.2 The first Committee Members will be the Members who have signed the application to register the Co-operative. The first Members and all subsequent Members who are eligible shall be Committee Members until there are more than seven Members. Once there are more than seven Members of the Co-operative, at the end of the next annual general meeting, all of the Committee Members shall retire.
- 34.3 A person must be aged 18 or over and a Member to become a Committee Member (including any person appointed to fill a casual vacancy) other than a person appointed as a co-optee or appointed by The Scottish Housing Regulator who must be aged 18 or over but need not be a Member.
- 34.4 An employee of the Co-operative, or a Close Relative of an employee, may not be a Committee Member.
- 34.5 No Committee Member may take office until they have agreed to and signed the Co-operative's code of conduct for Committee Members.

- 34.6 The Committee shall assess annually the skills, knowledge, diversity and objectivity that it needs for its decision making and what is contributed by the Committee Members by way of annual performance reviews. The Committee must be assured that any Committee Member who has continuous service on the Committee of nine years or more and who is seeking re-election is able to demonstrate his/her continued effectiveness as a Committee Member before he/she may stand for re-election.
- 34.7 Each of the Committee Members shall, in exercising his/her role as a Committee Member, act in the best interests of the Co-operative, its tenants and service users and will not place any personal or other interests ahead of his/her primary duty to the Co-operative; and, in particular, must:-
- 34.7.1 seek, in good faith, to ensure that the Co-operative acts in a manner which is in accordance with its objects.
 - 34.7.2 act with the care and diligence which it is reasonable to expect of a person who is managing the affairs of another person.
 - 34.7.3 in circumstances giving rise to the possibility of a conflict of interest between the Co-operative and any other party:-
 - 34.7.3.1 put the interests of the Co-operative before that of the other party, in taking decisions as a Committee Member; or
 - 34.7.3.2 where any other duty prevents him/her from doing so, disclose the conflicting interest to the Co-operative and refrain from participating in any discussions or decisions involving the other Committee Members with regard to the matter in question.
- 34.8 The Committee can require that a Committee Member who is being investigated for a potential breach of the Co-operative's Code of Conduct for Committee Members take leave of absence and not attend any meeting in his or her capacity as Committee Member until the Committee has completed its consideration of the potential breach. When on such leave of absence, the Committee Member will not be entitled to receive minutes and/or documents in his or her capacity as a Committee Member relating to the business of the Co-operative.

Interests

- 35.1 The Committee shall set and periodically review its policy on payments and benefits. If a person is a Member, employee of the Co-operative or serves on the Committee or any sub-committee he/she must not receive any payment or benefit unless it is permitted by the policy. In making any payment or conferring any benefit the Co-operative shall act at all times with transparency, honesty and propriety.
- 35.2 If a person serves on the Committee or any sub-committee he/she must declare any personal or other external interests on an annual basis in accordance with the Co-operative's Code of Conduct for Committee Members. If while serving on the Committee that person has any conflict of interest in any contract or other matter about to be discussed at a meeting, he/she must tell the Committee. He/she will be required to leave the meeting while the matter is discussed and will not be allowed to vote on the matter or to stay in the meeting while any vote on the matter is being held. If that person is inadvertently allowed to stay in the meeting and vote on the matter, his/her vote will not be counted.

ELECTING COMMITTEE MEMBERS

- 36.1 At the end of the first annual general meeting after the total membership of the Co-operative has risen to seven or more, all Committee Members must retire. From then on, at the end of every annual general meeting, one-third of the Committee Members or the nearest whole number thereto, must retire. Anybody appointed as a co-optee under Rule 39.1 or to fill a casual vacancy under Rule 38 and who retires for that reason, shall not count towards the one third provision. The retiring Committee Members should be selected in accordance with Rule 36.2.
- 36.2 In the absence of Committee Members standing down voluntarily, the retiring Committee Members should be those who have served the longest on the Committee since the date of their last election. If two or more Committee Members have served equally long and cannot agree who should retire, they must draw lots.
- 36.3 Committee Members must also retire if they have been co-opted onto the Committee under Rule 39.1 or have filled casual vacancies under Rule 38.
- 36.4 If a Committee Member retires from the Committee in terms of Rule 36 on the date of the next annual general meeting, that Committee Member can stand for re-election without being nominated.
- 37.1 If, at the annual general meeting the number of Members standing for election is less than or equal to the number of vacant places, the Chairperson will declare them elected without a vote. If there are more Members standing for election than there are vacant places, those present at the general meeting or those exercising a postal vote in accordance with Rule 24.6 will elect Members onto the Committee, in accordance with Rule 26.2. Each Member present or who has appointed a representative will have one vote for each place to be filled on the Committee. A Member must not give more than one vote to any one candidate.
- 37.2 The Co-operative will post or send by fax or email intimation of the intended date of the annual general meeting and information on the nomination procedure to each Member at the address, fax number or email address given in the Register of Members of the Co-operative not less than 28 days before the date of the meeting. Nominations for election to the Committee can be made only by Members, must be in writing and in the form specified by the Co-operative and must give the full name, address and occupation of the Member being nominated. A Member cannot nominate himself/herself for election to the Committee. Nominations must be signed by and include a signed statement from the Member being nominated to show that they are eligible to join the Committee in accordance with Rules 33.4 and 40, and that they are willing to be elected. Nomination forms can be obtained from the Co-operative and must be completed fully and returned by hand or by post to the Co-operative's registered office at least 21 days before the general meeting.
- 37.3 A nomination for election to the Committee can be rejected by a decision by not fewer than three quarters of the Committee Members on one or more of the following grounds:-
- 37.3.1 where election to the Committee would be contrary to the Co-operative's Rules or policies; or

- 37.3.2 where a conflict of interest may exist which, even allowing for the disclosure of such an interest may adversely affect the work of the Co-operative; or
 - 37.3.3 where there is clear evidence of relevant circumstances from which it is concluded that election to the Committee would not be in the best interests of the Co-operative.
- 37.4 The rejection of a nomination for election to the Committee shall be notified to the Member concerned in writing at any time prior to the date of the relevant annual general meeting.
- 38 If an elected Committee Member leaves the Committee between the annual general meetings, this creates a casual vacancy and the Committee can appoint a Member to take their place on the Committee until the next annual general meeting.

Co-optees

- 39.1 The Committee can co-opt to the Committee or to a sub-committee anyone it considers is suitable to become a Committee Member or member of a sub-committee. Co-optees do not need to be Members, but they can only serve as co-optees on the Committee or sub-committee until the next annual general meeting or until removed by the Committee. A person co-opted to the Committee can also serve on any sub-committees.
- 39.2 A person appointed as a co-optee shall undertake the role of Committee Member or member of a sub-committee and accordingly will be subject to the duties and responsibilities of a Committee Member. Co-optees can take part in discussions at the Committee or any sub-committees and vote at Committee and sub-committee meetings on all matters except those which directly affect the Rules, the membership of the Co-operative or the election of the Co-operative's Office Bearers. Co-optees may not stand for election, nor be elected as one of the Office Bearers of the Committee.
- 39.3 Committee Members co-opted in this way must not make up more than one-third of the total number of the Committee or sub-committee members at any one time. The presence of co-optees at Committee Meetings will not be counted when establishing whether the minimum number of Committee Members are present to allow the meeting to take place as required by Rule 45 and the presence of co-optees will not count towards the quorum for sub-committee meetings.

Eligibility for the Committee

- 40.1 A person will not be eligible to be a Committee Member and cannot be appointed or elected as such if:-

POWERS OF THE COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT

- 42 The Committee is responsible for directing the affairs of the Co-operative and its business and may do anything lawful which is necessary or expedient to achieve the objects of the Co-operative. The Committee is not permitted to exercise any powers which are reserved to the Co-operative in general meetings either by these Rules or by statute. The Committee is responsible for the leadership, strategic direction and control of the Co-operative with the aim of achieving good outcomes for its tenants and other service users in accordance with Regulatory Standards and Guidance issued by The Scottish Housing Regulator from time to time. The Committee is responsible for ensuring that the Co-operative can demonstrate its governance and financial arrangements are such as to allow The Scottish Housing Regulator to regulate effectively and exercise its full regulatory powers.
- 43 The Committee acts in the name of the Co-operative in everything it does. A third party acting in good faith and without prior notice does not need to check if the powers of the Committee have been restricted, unless they are already aware that such a restriction may exist.
- 44 Amongst its most important powers, the Committee can:-
 - 44.1 buy, sell, build upon, lease or exchange any land and accept responsibility for any related contracts and expenses.
 - 44.2 agree the terms of engagement and remuneration of anyone employed in connection with the business of the Co-operative and act as employer for anyone employed by the Co-operative.
 - 44.3 grant heritable securities over land owned by the Co-operative and floating charges over all or any part of property and assets both present and in future owned by the Co-operative. This includes accepting responsibility for any related expenses.

 - 44.8 accept donations in support of the activities of the Co-operative.

COMMITTEE PROCEDURE

- 45 It is up to the Committee to decide when and where to hold its ordinary meetings, but it must meet at least six times a year. There must be at least four Committee Members present for the meeting to take place.

- 46 The Committee will continue to act while it has vacancies for Members. However, if at any time the number of Committee Members falls below seven, the Committee can continue to act only for another two months. If at the end of that period the Committee has not found new Members to bring the number of Committee Members up to seven, the only power it will have is to act to bring the number of Committee Members up to seven.
- 47 Committee Members must be sent written notice of Committee meetings posted, or delivered, by hand or sent by fax or email to the last such address for such communications given to the Secretary at least seven days before the date of the meeting. The accidental failure to give notice to a Committee Member or the failure of the Committee Member to receive such notice shall not invalidate the proceeding of the relevant meeting.
- 48 Meetings of the Committee can take place in any manner which permits those attending to hear and comment on the proceedings.
- 49 All speakers must direct their words to the Chairperson. All Committee Members must remain quiet and maintain order while this is happening. The Chairperson will decide who can speak and for how long.
- 50 If any point arises which is not covered in these Rules, the Chairperson will give his/her ruling which will be final.
- 51 All acts done in good faith as a result of a Committee Meeting or sub-committee meeting will be valid even if it is discovered afterwards that a Committee Member was not entitled to be on the Committee.
- 52 A written resolution signed by not fewer than three quarters of the Committee Members or three quarters of the members of a sub-committee will be as valid as if it had been passed at a Committee Meeting or sub-committee meeting duly called and constituted.

Special Committee Meetings

- 53.1 The Chairperson or two Committee Members can request a special meeting of the Committee by writing to the Secretary with details of the business to be discussed. The Secretary will send a copy of the request to all Committee Members within three working days of receiving it. The meeting will take place at a place mutually convenient for the majority of Committee Members, normally the usual place where Committee Meetings are held, between 10 and 14 days after the Secretary receives the request.
- 53.2 No other business may be discussed at the meeting other than the business for which the meeting has been called.
- 53.3 If the Secretary does not call the special meeting as set out above, the Chairperson or the Committee Members who request the meeting can call the meeting. In this case, they must write to all Committee Members at least seven days before the date of the meeting.
- 54 If a Committee Member does not receive notice of the meeting, this will not prevent the meeting going ahead.

Sub-committees

- 55.1 The Committee can delegate its powers to sub-committees or to staff or to Office Bearers. The Committee will establish the terms of reference for such delegation, which will be set down in writing and communicated to the recipient of the delegated powers. Such delegation will be set down in writing in standing orders, schemes of delegated authority or other appropriate documentation. In the case of a sub-committee such delegation shall include the purposes of the sub-committee, its composition and quorum for meetings. A minimum number of members for a sub-committee shall be three. There must be at least three of the members of a sub-committee present for the meeting to take place. The Committee shall be responsible for the on-going monitoring and evaluation of the use of delegated powers.
- 55.2 The meetings and procedures of sub-committees or otherwise must comply with the relevant terms of reference.
- 55.3 Any decision made by sub-committee must be reported to the next Committee Meeting.
- 55.4 The Committee can establish and delegate powers to sub committees, designated as Area Committees, to take decisions relating to the management and maintenance of properties within a particular geographical area. The Committee will determine the membership and delegated responsibility of an Area Committee in its terms of reference. An Area Committee shall exercise such delegated powers notwithstanding the provisions of Rules 39.1 and 39.3 which provisions shall not apply to Area Committees.

THE SECRETARY AND OFFICE BEARERS

- 56.1 The Co-operative must have a Secretary, a Chairperson and any other Office Bearers the Committee considers necessary. The Office Bearers, except for the Secretary, must be elected Committee Members or Committee Members appointed to fill casual vacancies in accordance with Rule 38 but cannot be co-optees. An employee may hold the office of Secretary although not be a Committee Member. The Committee will appoint these Office Bearers. If the Secretary cannot carry out his/her duties, the Committee, or in an emergency the Chairperson, can ask another Office Bearer or employee to carry out the Secretary's duties until the Secretary returns.
- 56.2 The Secretary and the other Office Bearers will be controlled, supervised and instructed by the Committee.

The Chairperson can only be required to resign if a majority of the remaining Committee Members present at a special meeting agree to this.
- 56.8 If the Chairperson is not present at a Committee meeting or is not willing to act, the Committee Members present will elect another Committee Member to be Chairperson for the Committee Meeting. If the Chairperson arrives at the meeting late, s/he will take over as Chairperson of the Committee meeting as soon as the current agenda item is concluded.
- 56.9 If the votes of the Committee Members are divided equally for and against an issue, the Chairperson will have a second and deciding vote.
- 56.10 The Chairperson can resign his/her office in writing to the Secretary and must resign if s/he leaves the Committee or is prevented from standing for, or being elected to the Committee under Rule 40. The Committee will then elect another Committee Member as Chairperson.
